BANC Commissioner Profile:

Lora Anguay

Chief Executive Officer and General Manager
Sacramento Municipal Utility District (SMUD)

Lora Anguay, who previously served as SMUD's first Chief Zero Carbon Officer, was named Chief Executive Officer & General Manager in June 2026. As CEO, Anguay leads the sixth largest community-owned electric utility in the nation serving a population of 1.6 million residents and managing a $2.3 billion budget. A 22-year SMUD veteran, Anguay has actively architected the strategies currently transforming our region's energy landscape. As Chief Zero Carbon Officer, she was responsible for the transition of SMUD's power supply to achieve zero carbon, which included design, construction, maintenance and transition of SMUD's power generation assets, customer program strategy, and design and development related to distributed energy resources.

Anguay serves on the Board of Directors for the CSUS Foundation, the Board of Advisors for the UC Davis Energy and Efficiency Institute, the Board of Directors for the Roberts Family Development Center and the Board Executive Committee for the Roseville Area Chamber of Commerce.

Anguay received her Bachelor of Science degree in Business Administration from California State University, Sacramento.
